Allons-y!

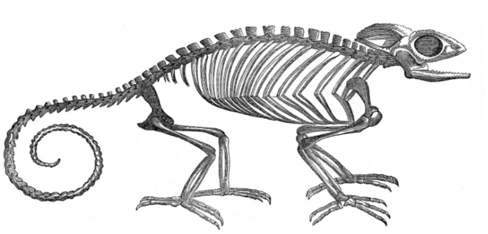
Warning!

While your wands are of the highest possible quality, it's been noted that (while rare) they occasionally display wild magic around certain artifacts.

We will not be held responsible if your wand accidentally sparks off when brought near a finance card or Video Home Standard cassette tape.



TODO: NOTE ABOUT DRINK MARKERS

Instructions

This potion, when done correctly, will be a pale green color, like the borealis on a crisp autumn night.

1. Place the small beaker on the mixing station and carefully pour the vial of Pixie Blood into it.
2. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Revelio.
3. Slowly add the draught of Moondew, which should turn your potion from blue to green if done properly.
4. Stir 4x clockwise and 1x counterclockwise, three times.
5. Add the Basilisk Venom, stir just to mix—no more.
6. Swirl the Boomslang Skin around the top, barely breaking the surface of the potion, then hang it on the side of your beaker.
7. Top with Gilly Water and insert a shard of ice crystal.
8. Touch your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.

915.—Dusky or Clouded Wolf.

Wolfsbane Potion

Wolfsbane cannot stop one from turning into a salivating beast, but it can make the entire process more enjoyable. Don't be fooled by its sweet taste and pleasant aroma. It's more powerful than the savage within.

Ingredients

A draught of Moondew
Dryad's Whisper
Basilisk Venom
Chameleon's Blood

At mixing station find:

Basilisk Scale
Viper's Sigh

Obtain the first four ingredients from the potion cabinets, placing each test tube in your carrier basket. Take them along with a small beaker to a mixing station.

Lab Equipment

Your MAGIC WAND is used for unlocking keyholes. But you must say the magic words: OPEN SAYS ME

The POTION CABINETS and MIXING STATIONS each have keyholes.

Elixir of Desire

This potion is perfect to share with your partner on a special evening, without losing your wits. Consume this sweet, aromatic potion through locked arms to increase its potency. Sweets for the Sweet!

Ingredients

Chameleon's Blood
Salamander Blood
Basilisk Venom
Hydra Tears

☑

At mixing station find:

Pixie Dust
Viper's Sigh

Gather the first four ingredients and put them in your carrier basket. Take them to the mixing station to brew.

This simple, delightful potion will charm the most grumpy wizard into a starry-eyed daze, calling up childhood memories of frolicking in the sunshine during school break.
Use with caution.

Ingredients

Unicorn Milk

☑

At mixing station find:

Mimic Musk
Basilisk Scale
Viper's Sigh

Gather the first three ingredients from the potion cabinets and put them in your carrier basket. Take them, along with a Conical Chalice, to the mixing station to brew.

Instructions

1. Place the small beaker on the mixing station.
2. Pour the Salamander Blood into the beaker.
3. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Escapum Realitus.
4. Add the Basilisk Venom and stir 8x — 2x clockwise, 2x counterclockwise, and then 4x very quickly clockwise.
5. Whisper Diligamus Insanitum over the vial of Acromantula Venom, then pour into the potion.
7. Sprinkle two spoonfuls of Pixie Dust, then turn to the person next to you and wish them well.
8. Stir 10x clockwise, 1x counterclockwise.
9. Repeat #7, for a total of 22 stirs.
10. Insert a few shards of ice crystals and stir to chill.
11. Fill with Gilly Water to the top of your beaker.
12. Point your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.

Wyvern's Sting

Veritaserum is an extremely powerful potion. A single drop will have you professing your love to your crush or telling your boss to shove it. Sweet to taste. Use with extreme caution.

Ingredients

Dryad's Whisper —OR— Specter's Spice
Chameleon's Blood
Hydra Tears

At mixing station find:

Pixie Dust

Collect the first three ingredients from the appropriate potion cabinet as well as a Conical Chalice.

Instructions

This blood red potion will turn the apple of your cheeks rosy and awaken your dead heart to the joys of love.

1. Place the beaker on the mixing station.
2. Touch your wand against the edge of the Dragon Spittle test tube around all four directional points: North, South, East, and West. In that exact order.
3. Say Amor Producat and pour the spittle into the beaker.
4. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Initium.
5. Add the Stewed Lacewing Flies and watch it disperse turning the Dragon Spittle fiery red.
6. Stir 14x clockwise, and then once counterclockwise.
7. Repeat step #6.
8. Slowly pour in the Salamander Blood and stir until the potion is a deep red.
9. Plop a Doxie Heart directly in the center.

10 Cover it with some shards of ice crystal.

11. Point your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.

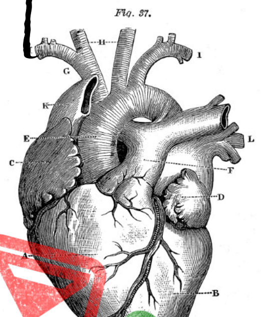
Siren's Kiss



Amortentia is the strongest love potion ever concocted. Although it never will create real love (which is a powerful magic of its own), Amortentia causes a powerful obsession. Sweet to taste, but consume with extreme caution.

Ingredients

Dragon Spittle —OR— Specter's Spice
Demon's Dram —OR— Vampire's Thirst
Salamander Blood
Phoenix Heart (at mixing station)

Gather the first three ingredients from the potion cabinets and place in your carrier basket. Take them along with a small beaker to the mixing station to brew your potion.

Instructions

Upon completion, a properly prepared potion will be a bright emerald green, the color of truth.

1. Place the small beaker on the mixing station and carefully pour the vial of Pixie Blood into it.
2. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Misce Veritasium in a strong, stern voice.
3. Slowly add the draught of Bulbadox Juice.
4. Add the Acromantula Venom and exactly 6 drops of the Infusion of Wormwood, stir 3x in a clockwise motion. No more, no less. Do not stir 4 times!
5. Add 3 drops of Phoenix Tears, stand on your left foot, hop three times, and exclaim Abeamus!
6. Swirl the Sliced Merlap Tentacle into your potion for a final stir, then hang on the side of your beaker.
7. Top with Gilly Water and insert an ice crystal shard.
8. Touch your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.

Draught of Living Death

A darkly dangerous potion, the Draught of Living Death will sap all the life out of anything that touches it. Strong & savory.

Ingredients

Goblin Sweat —OR— [✓ Specter's Spice]

At mixing station find:

Dragon Claw Ooze
Viper's Sigh
Ent Finger

Goblin Sweat is the most potent when used alone, with few alterations. Just a few drops of Dragon Claw Ooze is all that's necessary to brew this fatal brew, along with some Gilly Water to make it palatable and a sprig of Fluxweed.

Instructions

1. Place the beaker on the mixing station.
2. Swirl your wand around the outside edge of the vial filled with a measure of Goblin Sweat three times.
3. Say Mutatio Sudore, then transfer to the small beaker.
4. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Vertere.
5. Take a pinch of Iocane Powder, and sprinkle it over the Goblin Sweat.
6. Pour in the Horklump Juice and stir twenty-one (21) times, alternating directions every 7th turn.
7. Add 6 drops of the Infusion of Wormwood to the potion carefully. Pause for one second between each drop.
8. Stir with a sprig of Jewelweed until the Iocane Powder forms a small hurricane in the beaker.
9. Carefully drop a few ice crystal shards, as a large splash could cause an explosion.
10. Point your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.

Kiss of the Fairy

Although the taste of this golden elixir is slightly sweet, it's nothing compared to its effects. Known as "liquid luck," it can change your life.

Ingredients

Goblin Sweat
Gargoyle Wine
Infusion of Wormwood

At mixing station find:

Iocane Powder
Jewelweed

Gather the first two ingredients from the potion cabinets and place them in your carrier basket. Take them to a mixing station along with a small beaker.

Instructions

Take special care when brewing this potion.

1. Place the beaker on the mixing station & add Goblin Sweat.
2. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Celia Mortem—but it must be said in a very deep voice, barely above whisper.
3. Add 4 drops of Dragon Claw Ooze, and allow them to disperse fully before moving to the next step.
4. Repeat this precise stir pattern twice: 3x fast clockwise, pause for 2 seconds, 3x counterclockwise very fast, indeed.
5. Add 4 more drops of Dragon Claw Ooze, then immediately stir clockwise at a perfectly moderate speed to the count of 3 Mississippi.
6. Top with Gilly Water, then swirl a Sprig of Fluxweed across the potion from side to side.
7. Insert an ice crystal shard.
8. Point your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.

Confusing Concoction

If your goal be to boggle the mind, this potion will produce quick results. Powerful, yet succulently savory to the tongue.

Although this has few ingredients, it's deceptively potent—and quite tasty!

Ingredients

Dragon Spittle
Vial of Hemlock

At mixing station find:

Two Plimpy Eyes
Diminutive Wooden Stake

Gather the first two ingredients from the potion cabinet and put them in your carrier basket.

Instructions

1. Place the Conical Chalice on the mixing station, then add the Dragon Spittle.
2. Point your wand at the keyhole and say Conturbabimus in a falsetto voice very loudly.
3. Add the vial of Hemlock slowly and carefully, holding the test tube upside down until every drop has fallen.
4. Stir 10x very quickly clockwise. After each 4th stir, complete one stir in the opposite direction (counterclockwise).
6. Impale the eyes on the stake, swirl them around the bottom of the potion 6x counterclockwise, followed by 3x clockwise.
7. There is no step #7!
8. Add the impaled Plimpy Eyes to the chalice, leaning the Wooden Stake carefully along one side, its tip pointing due North.
9. Insert an ice crystal shard.
10. Point your wand to the keyhole and say Nox.
